

Rezi Pamulla

About me

I was born and raised in Jakarta on June 25, 1993. My primary vision is to build a legacy of pride for my parents, my wife, and my children, while also contributing positively to those around me. I firmly believe that challenges and obstacles present valuable opportunities for growth—honing my ability to navigate and overcome various situations. Without adversity, I would not gain the experience and insights necessary for continuous self-improvement.
